AxiomRAG PDF Unit Fixture

Hybrid retrieval combines lexical search and semantic vector search. This allows the system to find passages that use matching words and passages with related meanings.

MCTS selects evidence by balancing query coverage with redundancy. Claims should be checked against the selected evidence and cited to their source.